After starting with a green session, the benchmark Nifty continuously rose to make a weekly high of 6114.50 on Saturday. At the end of week Nifty closed at 6107.25. It had a net gain of 2.75% over the previous week's close. The buying interest was witnessed across the board. However, FMCG, Information technology, Power and Consumer durable stocks were on the buyers' radar.

The daily chart of Nifty is showing that it has given a pullback rally of almost 11.60% in a time span of just one. Now it is expected to test 6250 in the short tem. If Nifty is able to maintain above this level, an upward rally might carry it to 6350. However, a breach of 5900 would indicate the end current trend and in that case Nifty may test 5800 and then 5650 in the extreme short term.

For the coming week, first support of Nifty is at 6050 and the resistance is 6125. If Nifty breaks 6050, it may further go down to 5950 and then 5900. However, if Nifty is able to sustain above 6125, the level of 6190-6250 would become the next target.
