Market Wrap-Up

Marking yet another session of cautiousness ahead of the Winter session of Parliament, benchmark indices ended the day almost flat with the broader ones persisting to decisively underperform the benchmarks. Markets however initiated the day in the positive terrain amid assorted global markets before it turned choppy in the second half of trade. Asian markets surged in early trade on hopes that the US lawmakers may reach a deal to avert the USD 600 billion in tax increases and spending cuts due to start in January - the "fiscal cliff" that threatens to send the US economy back into recession. European Indices slipped as Moody's Investors Service downgraded France and euro-area finance ministers prepared to discuss Greece's finances. Nifty ended the day flat at 5571.55 and Sensex ended a tad lower at 18329.32 with loss of 9.68 points.
