

Northwest Michigan Regional Prosperity Initiative:

Creating Housing Choices in Leelanau County Next Steps for Meeting Local Housing Needs & Demand

Community leaders, elected & appointed officials, school officials, real estate agents, developers, landlords, property owners, and housing stakeholders are invited to learn about and discuss strategies to meet Leelanau County's housing needs and demand.

A meeting on Thursday, January 29 will include:

- An overview of Leelanau County housing needs and summary of target market analysis (TMA) recommendations
- Information on planning, zoning, financing, and other strategies for creating housing opportunities in Leelanau County
- Discussion on next steps and opportunities for assistance

Thursday, January 29

9 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Leelanau County Government Center
8725 E Government Center Dr, Suttons Bay

FREE

A light breakfast will be served. Please RSVP by January 26 to:

Elizabeth Calcutt, Networks Northwest

231-929-5048

elizabethcalcutt@networksnorthwest.org

To access Leelanau County's housing target market analysis reports, or for more information on the Framework for Our Future, please visit www.networksnorthwest.org/rpi