

If you're not for Zero Waste...

How much waste are you for?

INTRODUCTION TO ZERO WASTE

Interested in learning how Zero Waste has become a key component of community and business sustainability efforts across the US and the globe? Want to know more about the connection between Zero Waste and climate change, social justice and green jobs as well as the benefits to businesses pursuing Zero Waste? Curious about Zero Waste planning and infrastructure as well as community and business certification? This lively 4-hour interactive class is for you!

LEARN FROM ZERO WASTE PIONEERS

Class is offered online 4 times this summer (choose 1)

Thursday, July 7 • 10am-3pm PST or Thursday, July 28 • 10am-3pm PST
taught by Gary Liss

Tuesday, August 9 • 8am-12pm PST or Thursday, September 1 • 8am-12pm PST
taught by Richard Anthony

Richard Anthony

Internationally recognized and published expert in the area of Resource Management using the Zero Waste Systems approach

Gary Liss

Leading advocate of Zero Waste and has helped more communities develop Zero Waste plans than anyone else in the U.S.

Register today: $100
Group discounts available, as well as 2-for-1 scholarships.
www.zerowasteusa.org/training/upcoming/