All the District Educational Officers and the Project Officers of RVM (SSA) in the state are informed that vide proceedings under references 1st cited, it was communicated to provide Teacher Reference Books to Primary and Upper Primary Schools from the unspent balances available at DPOs under Teacher Training component of 2011-12. Due to audit objections on the irregular usage of funds of teacher training component vide proceedings under reference 2nd cited, it was informed not to entertain purchase of books under the head of Teacher Training component.

Since, some of the teachers and publishers requested to provide suitable books to the school libraries; it is clarified that the SMCs can purchase @ one copy of suitable book from the approved list communicated from State Project Office as per SSA guidelines. Some of the amount available under School Grant for the year 2012-13 may be used for the purchase of Library books as per the procurement guidelines of SSA by taking resolution of School Management Committee (SMCs). However they should buy only if these books are useful in their particular school.

Therefore, the District Educational Officers and the Project Officers of RVM (SSA) in the state are requested to inform to all the Head Masters and SMCs of schools that they can buy any approved books out of School Grant of 2012-13 as per the procurement guidelines of SSA by taking resolution of School Management Committee (SMCs).
