Halifax Makerspace Presents Makers' Social Night

Thursday, August 18, 7pm
Uncommon Grounds
1030 South Park St.

Come talk to other makers, dreamers, and doers. The Halifax Makerspace is a collective of people interested in all aspects of making and maker culture. Join us to talk about current projects, future builds, group projects, areas of learning and personal growth, or to ask questions and network with other people passionate about making.
