Morris Taylor – Final Chapter:

Regrettably, Morris passed on Tuesday 2 August.

There was a beautiful service at the White Rose Chapel in Cook Street, Hamilton East, seven days later. Afterward everyone gathered at Bidy's for the wake. Let's remember Morris as a good friend in happier times.

HBS Sister Society and Awards

Thinking of them, as Blues Brothers and Sisters across the seas in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

HBS ON have created awards recognising those supporting blues, not just Ontario locals, but also our HBS NZ musos. The HBS ON Organising Committee nominated two members: Dean McGaveston for promoting blues in the Waikato, and Roger McLay as the HBS NZ member for performing blues nominated by our members. Thank you HBS NZ members for nominating 'Mr Mudslide' McLay, making Roger our first HBS NZ member's choice for this prestigious award from our HSB Ontario, Canada, friends.

Please Note: The presentation of the awards has been postponed due to sponsorship issues in Canada.

Since the award is in Hamilton Ontario, plans are afoot to create an award/trophy HBS NZ can present to HBS ON to strengthen our Sister Society bonds (see below).

HBS Sister Society Trophy:

Not terribly long ago Paul Verney moved from Rotorua to Hamilton. Paul was an active member of the BOP Blues Club, and is rapidly becoming an active member of HBS NZ as well.

Paul has an undeclared talent, stone carving, and offered to create the trophy for HBS NZ to present to the HBS ON President, BigJohnny Blue (John Crawford, President HBS ON), when he arrives in Hamilton, NZ, in February 2023.

Quick Facebook Competition:

Peter McMillan, bandleader of Imperfect Offering (Leonard Cohen Tribute Band) has offered HBS NZ members a great prize, but it requires a little work:
 - log into HBS NZ Facebook page, 'Like' the Imperfect Offering post, in the 'Comment line' add the name of the person you'll take with you
 - to enter a random draw for a double ticket.

Gallagher Academy for Performing Arts
 (GAPA), University of Waikato.

Drawn at 8pm Friday night, 7 Oct.

Tauranga Blues Jam: New Venue

The Tauranga Blues Jam moved from Jack Dusty's, Otumoetai, to Tauranga Sport Fishing Club at Sulphur Point, closer to The Mount, a month or two ago.

There is plenty of parking and it is a great night out, great LIVE Music.

Bigger venue accommodating a bigger crowd as well.

Revue - Ladies Sing The Blues: 2022

Ladies Sing The Blues, 29 September 2022, was brought forward from Halloween to September this year.

Kim and Phil opened the evening, followed by Bidy with Mojo backed by well-known musicians in the Waikato, Trish was supported by Garry Spain, with Mary supported by Mr Mudslide himself, Roger McLay, following. Chris Penman fronting the Dynamo Blues Band closed out the night. Appreciative crowd, great music.

Well done our HBS Divas, and the T-shirts should be available very soon.
