

LADINO/JUDEO-SPANISH DOCUMENTATION AND REVITALIZATION EFFORTS: LANGUAGE, MUSIC, AND FOLKLORE

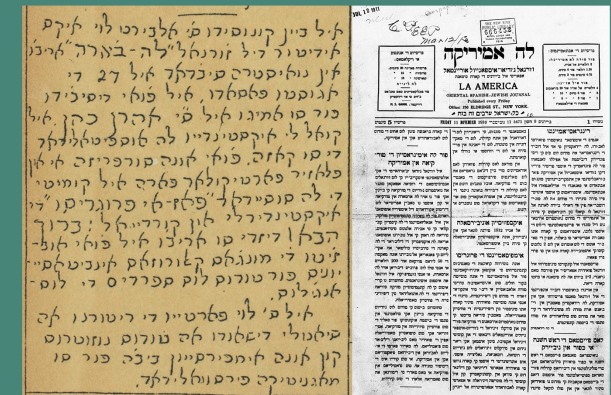

December 5, 2021, 10 am Pacific / 1 pm Eastern / 8 pm Israel

Since the first International Ladino Day was declared on December 5th, 2013, communities around the world have gathered to celebrate Judeo-Spanish and Sephardic culture. In the spirit of Ladino Day, the Jewish Language Project is convening a panel of experts to discuss their recent work and consider how researchers, activists, and performers can work together to increase knowledge about and engagement with the Ladino language.

Moderator: Ora (Rodrigue) Schwarzwald, Linguist, Bar-Ilan University

Panelists:

- Derya Agis, Linguist, University of the People
- Rachel Amado Bortnick, Founder, Ladinokomunita
- Judith Cohen, Ethnomusicologist, Performer, York University
- Bryan Kirschen, Linguist, Binghamton University
- Devin Naar, Historian, University of Washington
- Rey Romero, Linguist, University of Houston-Downtown

Register

