Marina Yusupova

Masculinity, Criminality and the Russian State Building After the Fall of the Soviet Union

Marina Yusupova is a Visiting Scholar at the Center for the Study of Men and Masculinities and PhD Candidate at the Department of Russian and East European Studies at the University of Manchester, UK. Her PhD project is based on life story interviews with Russian men living in Russia and Russian immigrants in the UK. It explores how ideologies of masculinity inform the lived experience of Russian men living in two different sociocultural contexts and shape individual life trajectories, migration and subjectivities.
