Wide Area Search (PER-213)

The New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness along with the New Jersey Office of Emergency Management will be sponsoring multiple sessions of a three-day training course titled: “Wide Area Search (PER-213).” The Texas Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), a member of the National Domestic Preparedness Consortium (NDPC), will instruct the course. There is no-cost to attend this course.

Description

The Wide Area Search course is designed to provide training for search responders to effectively conduct wide area searches due to natural disasters or man-made incidents. This course introduces the knowledge, skills and abilities to perform wide area searches at a disaster incident site. The course concludes with a culminating event tabletop exercise that requires participants to utilize all the skills introduced throughout the course.

Audience

The course content applies to a vast number of critical situations, including natural disasters or terrorist incidents. Target disciplines include Emergency Management, Emergency Medical Services, Fire Service, Governmental Administrative, Law Enforcement, Health Care, Public Health, Public Safety Communications, Citizen/Community Volunteer, Security and Safety. 8 continuing elective units (CEUs) will be awarded to New Jersey Emergency Medical Technicians who complete the course.

Registration

Spaces are limited and preregistration is required one week prior to each delivery.

For your convenience, please select the cell below for the date and location you wish to attend and you will automatically link to the associated registration form. This is the only method of registering for this training. All information is required and be sure to accurately enter your e-mail address given this will be our method of communicating with you.
