

Electronic Health Records (EHR) Standards Subcommittee
Webinar – Achieving Universal Health Coverage:
Key considerations regarding the use of EHRs

When?
5 March 2019
13H00 – 14H00

Who should attend?

The webinar is open to anybody interested in the development of Electronic Health Records standards and/or Health Information Governance used in Electronic Health Records in South Africa.

Cost?

The webinar is free

Registration Here

In Association With:

Hosted By:

Meet Your Webinar Host:

Lourens Walters
PHISC EHR
Subcommittee

Meet Your Speakers:

Electronic Health Records: Ethico-legal considerations

Dr Selaelo Mametja
South African Medical Association

Selaelo is a Public Health Medicine Specialist with experience in health economics, LAW and ethics, financing, health policy, management, medical aid industry and pharma-co-economics. Being very interested in protection of human rights and dignity, I have recently ventured ethical utilisation of technology to improve people's lives.

Electronic Health Records for NHI PHC Capitation Contracting

Prof Shabir Moosa
World Organisation of Family
Doctors

Shabir is a family physician and Associate Professor in the Department of Family Medicine (Johannesburg Health District and University of Witwatersrand). He is developing Chiawelo Community Practice as a model for primary care service delivery reform and GP contracting under National Health Insurance with research, training and advocacy for integrated community practice.