Dear friends :) An unforgettable #OnEBoardChat today :) TY for ur time & wisdom! This was a great #digital #experience that has contributed to #communicationsliteracy :) Have a fantastic Sunday :) @NinaTrankova @MsDrasby @moniscope @Cypseloides @PeggyKTC @BrigitteUras @matamatini

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366114666376810501?s=20>

great that they address this topic :) Thank you @moniscope

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366116264368832514?s=20>

absolutely agree :) online communications has proven crucial especially with #COVID19

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366112330900267021?s=20>

ah, thank you @VeskoLegalis fully agree with you :)

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366112008945467393?s=20>

yes, they need to be combined with #socialskills and ability to communicate digitally, correct @PeggyKTC

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366111708595560453?s=20>

Thank you @MsDrasby and for those who finished school already? May be they should look for expert advice? @NinaTrankova ?

Q3 #OnEBoardChat: #communicationsliteracy in the #digital era: Q3: Should communications literacy be taught in school?

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366109471802548236?s=20>

A3: I think both written and oral communication skills and critical thinking skills should be taught in school (asking with math, science and history). But those aren't unique to digital platforms. #OnEBoardChat

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366111204742107136?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A3 Every student across the planet should be connected online because it is now the new "highway" for distribution of all kinds of information systems (retail, science, belief, management, political, etc.). Schools must teach kids the basics.

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366111518622838784?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A3: Totally believe #communicationliteracy should be taught as part of both #reading & #writing lessons. It is part of preparing students to be #futureready

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366110908313964544?s=20>

A3: this is long due and I truly believe to witness Communication Literacy in school programs. Learning the most spread mistake: lack of communication and upgrade digital skills will make relationships better #OnEBoardChat

<https://twitter.com/NinaTrankova/status/1366114038669795332?s=20>

Why not? Communications literacy is becoming more and more important in today's digital world and should be indeed taught in school, in one way or another. :)

#OnEBoardChat #communicationsliteracy #digital

<https://twitter.com/VeskoLegalis/status/1366111657857069058?s=20>

A3: in fact, communications literacy is both element of hourly schedule in language and all subjects, and underlaying teaching principle. That's theory so far..

In every day practice, time is running out almost immediately and teachers hurry through their lessons.

#OnEBoardChat

<https://twitter.com/moniscope/status/1366115590532923394?s=20>

That's the hard thing. So much to learn in limited time!

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366116952339439618?s=20>

Agree :) and yes I believe #fakenews initially came to replase the #nonews

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366109207787929607?s=20>

I agree partially. #Fakenews would not be shared by people if they knew it is #fake. They share it because they believe it. My personal opinion here

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366108161107722244?s=20>

I think you are right, but it's difficult to convince people when the news is something they want to be true.

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366108611680772096?s=20>

It's both, I guess, appealing because meeting the own biases and filling in a gap / lack of information.

<https://twitter.com/moniscope/status/1366132424539799559?s=20>

Absolutely agree :) But I also think people should be able to rely on digital coaching from experts, correct? @NinaTrankova @moniscope @Cypseloides

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366107758534213634?s=20>

Yes, indeed. Learn from the expertise of others!

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366109663347965953?s=20>

Agreed Hundred points symbol

Here's trust coming in to play an elementary role.

<https://twitter.com/moniscope/status/1366116322996813824?s=20>

A2: Experience such as 10 years online is a Gem stone Happy learners have good choices of expert resources like #OnEBoard <https://oneboard.network>

<https://twitter.com/NinaTrankova/status/1366111665033539584?s=20>

A2: critical thinking is an essential part of communication digital literacy. Completely agree @Stavreva @PeggyKTC #OnEBoard

<https://twitter.com/NinaTrankova/status/1366110329160290309?s=20>

Q2 #OnEboardchat: #communicationsliteracy in the #digital era: Q2: Can communications literacy help to recognize and fight fake news? #fakenews

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366105980854013955?s=20>

A2: understanding how different platforms share and amplify news and other content, how to identify the source of information and general critical thinking skills can help people identify fake news. However...

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366107435635671042?s=20>

And it's also a very lucrative business, by the way.

<https://twitter.com/VeskoLegalis/status/1366107800720576522?s=20>

It is! Fake news aimed at the US has been found to often be created and spread by non-US groups doing it for the ad revenue.

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366109108441468929?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A2 Absolutely! Online literacy is our only weapon against misinformation, disinformation, falsehoods, gaslighting, etc. If one is knowledgeable on truthful sources of information fake news cannot proliferate.

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366107035767500800?s=20>

A2: Hundred points symbolYes, communication literacy can make big difference in recognizing and fighting fake news! Savvy users navigate via professional tools thus fake content can be instantly surfaced #OnEBoardChat

<https://twitter.com/NinaTrankova/status/1366109778733379587?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A2: Sadly #fakenews is a negative result of social media. This is why it is important to teach how to recognize the truth from falsehood

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366108049702813697?s=20>

Thank you @Cypseloides :) Do you think knowledge of #socialmedia platforms is more important than the content you share, or are they equally important?

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366104603113230338?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat I think content is king. BUT if cannot connect with people...well your expertise is unfounded

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366105380254670849?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat Helpful to know how to share one's perspective or skill without it sounding spammy.

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366105380254670849?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat Helpful to know how to share one's perspective or skill without it sounding spammy.

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366106584414257154?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat That is trueSlightly But, I just reflect on: "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." — Edmund Burke

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366107650962771968?s=20>

that is a definition worth framing :) thank you @NinaTrankova

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366105505152794627?s=20>

Was mich manchmal stört, ist die Anonymität der digitalen Kommunikation

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366105167196790796?s=20>

Kann ich verstehen, in der digitalen Welt sieht man nur das geschriebene Wort nicht das passende Gesicht. Manchmal schade

<https://twitter.com/matamatini/status/1366106682913398786?s=20>

Verba Volant Scripta Manent :)

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366107230756610048?s=20>

Do you think #empathy shows in #digital communications too?

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366104120206254082?s=20>

Yes, sure, just like in real life, all components are included: call & response, semantic, context, and many more.

Unfortunately one level is missing: the live facial expression.

<https://twitter.com/moniscope/status/1366105230417534978?s=20>

Thank you, Vesko :) Agree with u that in the #digital era we need to have a point a view, communicate it in a relevant way and be obsessed with #security - ours and the people we talk to. Do you agree @Cypseloides @MsDrasby @NinaTrankova @moniscope ?

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366103746128859140?s=20>

#oneboardchat A1: Yes! A good understanding of #security is necessary including and understanding of #privacy rules

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366104490143850499?s=20>

A1: I'm obsessed with security indeed @Stavreva

@VeskoLegalis All my communications are secure with my brand

Q1 #OnEBoardChat: #communicationsliteracy in the #digital era: Q1: How would you define communications literacy in the digital era?

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366100920954720261?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A1 One must know (have skillsets) that navigate a variety of social media platforms along with production of content types (written, verbal, graphic)

<https://twitter.com/Cypseloides/status/1366104269468827649?s=20>

It is also helpful knowing how to create video content.

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366105576695074819?s=20>

Oui je suis du même avis

<https://twitter.com/BrigitteUras/status/1366109771007410188?s=20>

A1: the human to human interaction aligned with modern Internet Standards respectful to cultural diversity, inclusive and socially responsible #OnEBoardChat
<https://twitter.com/NinaTrankova/status/1366104526810456067?s=20>

Absolutely! #digitalcitizenship

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366105111139938304?s=20>

A1: you need both, kind communication like in real life and technical skills.

#OnEBoardChat with @Stavreva

<https://twitter.com/moniscope/status/1366103605321859074?s=20>

A1: today communications are multi-platfom and international. Even private communications may be shared online. So as a communicator you need to be able to speak to the world.

<https://twitter.com/PeggyKTC/status/1366104213676118016?s=20>

#OnEBoardChat A1: Communication literacy would be the ability to write respectful brief on topic thoughts. It would include the ability to communicate using various tech tools in both a public & private manner. #Edtech #remoteteaching ein umgang wie im realen Leben, freundlich, respekt voll. leider viel zu selten da im digitalen bereich viele die erziehung vergessen haben.

<https://twitter.com/MsDrasby/status/1366102578807918597?s=20>

<https://twitter.com/matamatini/status/1366104613800341509?s=20>

Surtout la nouvelle génération qui ne prends pas le temps de transcrire les textes...ne peuvent être dans la réalité du créateur (écrivain)

<https://twitter.com/BrigitteUras/status/1366113480563122178?s=20>

Oui la littérature est importante comme tout le reste dans les médias sociaux, cela fait partie de la communication...

<https://twitter.com/BrigitteUras/status/1366108643880538118?s=20>

We will use Twitter Chat format of Q1, A1 and the hashtag #OnEBoardChat. To ensure consistency - reply to each question using the Reply button or quoting the tweet. Can't wait 15 minutes

<https://twitter.com/Stavreva/status/1366096994498981894?s=20>

In the last day of Feb when spring is just around the corner, I am very excited & honored to moderate the next #OnEBoardChat - at 8 pm CET. We will follow up from last week's #education topics with a discussion around #communicationsliteracy in the #digital era.
