

Open Education Symposium 2020

Join us for our annual Open Education Symposium at Virginia Tech University Libraries! This event is in celebration of the national event Open Education Week and will include events surrounding open education topics, issues, and tools.

Register and livestream our events: <https://guides.lib.vt.edu/oer/oeweek>
Questions? Contact openeducation@vt.edu

Schedule of Events

Monday, March 2nd
6:00pm - 8:00pm
Torgerson Hall
Room 1100

Faculty Panel Discussion
“Connecting the Opens: Open Access, Open Education, Digital Humanities & Open Data”

Topics are relevant to current and future faculty

Tuesday, March 3rd
2:00pm - 3:15pm
Newman Library
Multipurpose Room

Faculty and Student Panel Discussion
“Issues in Course Materials Access & Use Equity”

Topics include: cost, persistent access, privacy, pedagogical affordances, customization, and career advancement.

Tuesday, March 3rd
3:30pm - 5:00pm
Newman Library
Multipurpose Room

Lightning Rounds & Expo
“OER (Open Educational Resources), Pedagogy & Tools”

Topics include: Open publishing with Pressbooks & Overleaf; Creative Commons; Open source Virtual Reality; Open Textbook Library; Open Podcasts; and more!

Wednesday, March 4th
10:00am - 12:00pm
Newman Library
Room 427

Pressbooks Workshop

An introduction to the Pressbooks platform where participants will practice working with the Pressbooks system for authoring, collaborating, and publishing.

