English for Development Professionals

Target Audience:

Employees of the development sector organizations, i.e. UN agencies, local and international NGOs, development sector companies etc.

About the Course:

English is the most widely spoken and understood language in the world. It is also the principal language of the corporate world as well as of development organizations, so its importance is well established. English is not our native language, many development professionals feel the need to improve their writing and speaking skills. This course has been designed to help development professionals enhance their English and communication skills. This is a comprehensive course designed to meet all needs of professionals such as speaking, writing, presentation, pronunciation etc. Moreover, we will ask a few questions in the registration form, which will be helpful for the trainer to modify the course accordingly. The following are the main objectives of the course:

- ▶ To develop and improve speaking skills of participants to enable them to communicate effectively and persuasively.
- ▶ To familiarize the participants with the speaking style of accomplished professionals
