

National Environmental Policy Act Workshop

April 26-27, 2018

How NEPA Can Help You Achieve the Results You Want

Join us for a free two-day workshop aimed at developing the skills necessary to successfully navigate the NEPA process and promote effective community engagement in federal decisions affecting the environment, health, and safety of communities and public lands. Taught by practitioners with decades of experience with NEPA, the workshop will provide practical tips and review current trends in NEPA, climate change, tiering, mitigation and monitoring, and more.
