

Ἐωθινὸν IA'

Ἡχος Πόλης Νη ο

Handwritten musical notation in ancient Greek script, likely a transcription of the Hesiodic Chorus. The notation uses vertical stems with horizontal strokes for pitch and rhythm. Red markings include circled numbers (16, 6, 7), circled letters (Δ, Η, Ηρ, ΣΙ, ΕΙΣ), and circled symbols (φ, ω). The lyrics are written below the stems.
