

INVITATION

FLYOVERS: WILL THEY SOLVE OUR TRAFFIC WOES?

A public discussion with the release of our report on 'Understanding the Flyover Phenomenon'

---

Day and Date : Friday, 24th June, 2016
Time : 11:00 am - 1:00 pm (preceeded by refreshments at 10:30)
Venue : Indradhanushya Centre for Citizenship & Environment Education, Opposite Sachin Tendulkar Jogging Park,
Anant Kanhere Street, Near Mhatre Bridge,
Rajendranagar, Pune 11

---

Special Guests:

Dr Geetam Tiwari

*TRIPP Chair Professor at the Department of Civil Engineering of the Indian Institute of Technology, New Delhi
Extensive research on Transport Planning and policy,
Traffic Safety, Public Transport and Non-Motorised Transport Planning*

Dr Rajendra Ravi

Director, Institute for Democracy and Sustainability, New Delhi Significant work in the field of cycle rickshaws as a sustainable transport option, social implications of urban transportation policies.

Parisar would like to release the report and share the prominent learnings from it, initiating a discussion into the impact of flyovers on our cities which will be moderated by the opinions of our special guests and their experiences.

We are looking forward to your participation. Thank you!

Regards,
Shweta Vernekar, Project Co-ordinator,
shweta@parisar.org 9960 732 645