Community School of Music and Arts presents Musas: Uncovering Lost Piano Works by Latin American Women Composers on January 28

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) presents “Musas: Uncovering Lost Piano Works by Latin American Women Composers” performed by Dr. Gabriela Calderón Cornejo in a free concert on Saturday, January 28 at 7:30 pm in Tateuchi Hall. Doors open at 7:00 pm.

“Musas: Uncovering Lost Piano Works by Latin American Women Composers” from Dr. Gabriela Calderón Cornejo is a piano solo recital with commentary on the album and anthology. Musas strives to uncover and highlight a collection of at-risk compositions by Latin American women born before 1950. Following the concert, Calderón Cornejo will hold a Q&A.

The evening’s program will include works from Carmen Barradas, Maria Mendoza de Baratta, Nelly Mele Lara and Aurora Román Casares.

Gabriela Calderón Cornejo, a native of Costa Rica, is a solo performer, chamber musician and collaborative pianist. Her work in rediscovering, adapting and promoting previous undigitized works by Latin American female composers has been featured at international conferences and concert series culminating in the release of her first studio album and anthology Musas. Gabriela Calderón Cornejo works as a faculty member at CSMA and serves as a board member for the Cayambis Institute for Latin American Studies in Music (CILASiM).
