Teaching Israeli Dances

September 24-26, 2021 at The Avalon Boulder, Colorado

Shmulik Gov-Ari is a gifted choreographer and dance teacher. He has choreographed more than 300 dances utilizing both traditional and contemporary Israeli music. His choreography reflects the history of Israel and Israeli life.

He is also an accomplished, professional dancer who has performed with multiple dance groups. In addition, throughout his teaching career, he established performance groups in Israel and used his skill and knowledge to pioneer the art of using dance as a bridge between Arab and Jewish youth.

Shmulik has a story for each of his choreographies that he will happily share with us at the workshop. This workshop is an incredible opportunity to work with a renown international Israeli teacher in person.

The Avalon is a dedicated, spacious dance facility with beautiful, sprung wood dance floors. Come join us!

Workshop contingent on COVID situation. Further information will be on BIFD website.
