MOVIE NIGHT FUNDRAISER

From homeless people around the world, this is their story... DISTANCE TO NOW A short film about a family torn countries apart by the violent

Thursday 4 May 2017 5.30 - 7.30pm (6pm start)

Manly Community Centre
12 Wentworth Street, Manly

actions of their father.

The Northern Beaches Domestic Violence Network is presenting two powerful documentaries* by Dan Balcaban on homelessness and domestic violence. Proceeds from the night will go to Manly Community Centre's Domestic Violence Programs.

Cost: $15 pp, light refreshments provided RSVP by Tuesday 2 May - bookings essential www.trybooking.com/273786

*Although there is no formal classification for these films due to the mature themes displayed, such as domestic violence and homelessness, parental guidance is recommended for people under the age of 15 years.

