CENTRE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

The Future
Reimagined

The Centre for Social Change invites you to our webinar series. We are pleased to welcome Dr Lata Narayanaswamy who will be presenting on

Professionalisation and the decolonisation of global gender equality norms

Presenter: Dr Lata Narayanaswamy is an Associate Professor in the Politics of Global Development, School of Politics and International Studies (POLIS), University of Leeds, UK

Since 2001 Dr. Narayanaswamy has worked as a research practitioner, consultant and now an academic working at the nexus between development theory and practice. Her research critically reflects on gendered/intersectional and post/decolonial dynamics of development knowledge and its perceived contribution to addressing global development challenges. She is currently involved in applied, interdisciplinary research related to gender and climate change, water security and decolonising development.
