

Production Inclusion Project DC

PIP DC is a collective of Washington, DC area producers, production managers and media executives who have pledged to increase opportunities and visibility for people of color in DC's production community.

Application for Mentorship Program

1. Name of Applicant _____
2. Preferred pronoun _____
3. Present University or Institutional affiliation _____
4. Area of study _____
5. Number of years completed _____
6. Date degree will be granted (Day/Month/Year) _____
7. Email

8. Phone Number _____
9. Emergency Contact Name & Number _____
10. Please provide your social media handle (Instagram, Facebook, or LinkedIn)

11. How did you hear about PIP DC? _____
12. Briefly explain your reasons for applying to the PIP DC Mentorship Program. You should describe what you hope to learn from the program and what you are most curious about in the film and television field. Please also explain if you have any production interests after graduation.

Production Inclusion Project DC

PIP DC is a collective of Washington, DC area producers, production managers and media executives who have pledged to increase opportunities and visibility for people of color in DC's production community.

13. Please provide details if you have any television or film production experience:

14. Please indicate any associations and/or civic activities with which you are affiliated:

15. Statement of understanding of the conditions of the mentorship:

I understand that, should I be accepted as a fellow, the following conditions will apply:

- a) The PIP DC Mentorship Program is not connected with employment and there is no expectancy of such.
- b) The PIP DC Mentorship Program is a time commitment of several months and requires at least 1 hour each week of my time. If I fail to meet my commitment, I understand that I will be removed from the program with ample warning.

Applicant Signature _____ Date: _____

Please submit this completed application along with your resume and contact info for 1 to 2 references (school or professional) for the Fall 2021 – Spring 2022 session to mentor@productioninclusionproject.com by October 15, 2021.