Alumnae/i Working in Japanese-Connected US Organizations

FRIDAY, APRIL 30
FROM 8 - 9 PM EST

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES REQUIRING ACCOMMODATIONS OR INFORMATION ON ACCESSIBILITY SHOULD CONTACT THE CAMPUS ACTIVITIES OFFICE, 845 437 5370

Are you looking for a way to remain connected to a culture or language you love while working in the United States? One strategy is to seek out organizations that have offices in both their home country and the United States (or vice versa). Join the Japanese Association of Students, the Japanese Department, and the Career Development Office to hear from alumnae/i who went on to work at organizations within the United States that have ties back to Japan in one way or another. Our alumnae/i will share about the ways in which Japanese culture and language show up in their workplaces and the ways in which they get to embrace this given that many of them either are Japanese themselves or studied Japanese while at Vassar.

Already confirmed alumnae/i include:

- Eliot Cowley '15

Senior Technical Content Strategist at PlayStation

- Megan McPherson '11,

Former Freelance Editor/Proofreader at Yen Press and Kodansha Comics
