We offer outings at various locations with inspiring leaders who share stories of this region from many points of view. Join together with others interested in preserving our precious resources (in the wild and at home) for future generations. Sign up - rejuvenate, make a difference! Families are always welcome.

WHY A DUCK? Sat., June 1st TIME 10:00 am

A treasure hunt set up by Nature. The group will participate in a mystery and open several of the duck boxes at Conaway Ranch and count what's inside. Will the boxes contain eggs, ducklings or perhaps the mother birds? This is an opportunity to take a peak into the private lives of ducks, learn about their habits.

Guide: Cara Thow Location: Conaway Ranch - between Woodland & Davis

ASTRONOMY & a Community "THINK IN!" Sat., June 8th TIME: 7:00 pm

Our THINK IN! series provides opportunities to get outside, express yourself on a particular topic and then sit back and listen to the thoughts and feelings of your neighbors. You just might discover a lot of similarities.

As the group waits for the sky to go dark, there will be plenty of time for a picnic and sharing on the June 8th topic, what is your relationship with stuff? Do you feel overwhelmed? When the sky does go dark, sit back and look up at stars as a local astronomer takes you on a tour of the night sky.

Guide: Local Astronomer/John Oberholtzer Location: Conaway Ranch

KAYAK/CANOE at Lake Solano and OVERNIGHT CAMPING Sat., June 15th TIME: 3:00 pm until Sun. 1:00 pm

A get away trip for Dad (Father's Day) and the whole family. Camp over night at a private campground at Lake Solano and on Sunday morning, explore the lake in small groups by canoe. It'll be a Father's Day to remember. You will need to provide all your personal camping gear and food—a list will be sent to you on what to bring. Cooking stove & pots, camping permit and boats will be provided by HPA.

Guides: Jeff Falyn & Lyndsay Dawkins Location: Lake Solano County Park

FOLLOW THE PATH OF GARBAGE and ART FROM RECYCLED MATERIALS Sat., June 22nd TIME: 10:00 am

What happens to a plastic bottle thrown on the ground or in the trash? A visit to the County Landfill will help you see the big picture of our garbage—where it goes, how it's being recycled and the graphic, unbelievable stories of waste. Afterward, everyone will participate in a very simple art activity using recycled materials.

Guide: Marissa Juhler Location: Yolo Landfill and Chestnut Park

ALL ABOUT BEES Sat., June 29th TIME: 9:00 am

Bees! Some people are afraid and swat at them; others have no idea what bees do. On this outing, UC Davis Beekeeper, Billy Synk sheds a little more light on the wonderful world of bees: how they gather and store food and how human beings benefit from the work of the bees. Additionally, the group will walk through BEE HAVEN garden and explore a sanctuary created especially for the bees. This outing is perfect for the whole family.

Guide: Billy Synk Location: UC Davis

A SUPER FULL MOON & THINK IN! Sat., July 20th TIME: 7:00 pm

Our THINK IN! series continues with another opportunity to get outside, express yourself on a particular topic and then sit back and listen to the thoughts and feelings of your neighbors. As the group watches the super full moon rise in all its giant glory, each participant will have a chance to share a story about a mentor who really made a difference in their life. The question will then turn to, how can we create more mentors for the children in our community? The group will take a half an hour stroll through the wetlands at Conaway Ranch before gathering to share the light of the moon and conversation.

Guide: Jeff Falyn Location: Conaway Ranch

NATURE'S THEATER -Mother Nature and the Toddlers Wed. - 6:00 pm on 7/10

Mother Nature, in costume, leads the toddlers on a walk full of learning, story and sensory experiences in the natural world. E-mail for a fuller schedule and more information about Nature's Theater in the region. Nature's Theater serves kids from the toddler age to 10, with teens often running the stories.
