Allah praises Him and recites Derwood and Salah on His Prophet hood and Prized, Cherished and Admired Self Hood. His ultimate highness stands supremely and unquestionably above the time, age, race, cult, creed, nation, state, region, continent, geographical boundaries, imaginations, philosophies, faculties, languages, affiliations, social systems, sect, religion, belief, gender, space, species or any other worldly human defined limits of any kind what so ever. The people who stand enlightened and to whom the words of logic matter understand well that the only creation of Allah standing worthy of all the possible praises in His Honor is the Prestigious Prophet Hood of Mohammad-ur-Rasool Allah (Sallallah-o-Alaihe-Wa-Alehi-Wasalm). No one else, amongst the creations other than His Highness fulfilled all the possible roles, a creation can perform or undertake during the life time, with unparalleled excellence and far beyond the describable limits. His conquests, His influence, His message, His presence, His authority, His concepts, His personality, His family, His followers, His mosque and His socio-economic systems all are unique, incomparable, absolute and worthy of His Heightened Self Hood the Traveller of Heavens and the holder of Highest Places bestowed upon him by no one else than Allah Himself. Every single language known or spoken on the surface of this earth and far beyond the heavens contains his Profuse Praises in the form of Unlimited Naats, Qaseedas, Poems, Munqabats, Verses and written unending prose like these.
